New Books

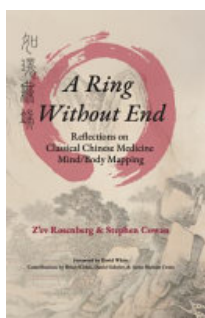

Acupuncture Techniques: A Practical Manual by Tianjun Wang

Acupuncture Techniques—A Practical Manual, is an invaluable resource for both acupuncture practitioners and students, offering a thorough exploration of acupuncture techniques.

Chinese herbal legends by Zhu Zhongbao & Zhu Liu

This is a collection of stories about 50 important Chinese medicinal herbs, which will help any student or practitioner to more fully experience the impact of Chinese herbs

A Ring Without End: Reflections on Classical Chinese Medicine Mind/Body Mapping

Explores the connection between classical Chinese medicine and modern ecological concepts, using the Nanjing as a foundation to create a dynamic, holistic view of health

The Practice of Tui Na by Rob Aspell

This book is an accessible clinical handbook of Tui Na principles and practice, which can be used as much more than a musculoskeletal therapy, but in order to use it to its full potential as a medical intervention, it is essential to understand its uses

Search the Library Catalog 24/7!

Looking to see if the library has a specific book available? Search the library catalog by ISBN, author or title. Catalog will indicate location of the book with call number and if the book is available or on loan. Select New York library in the drop down menu. Ask the library assistant for help if you can't find it on the shelves.

Access to NYC Medical Libraries for PCHS Students!

Through METRO's referral program, PCHS library patrons can search across METRO's member libraries for a specific book or item, or can visit another member library to view materials across entire subject areas. To participate in this service, scan the QR Code. You can contact the PCHS library with any questions!

Our New EDI (Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion) Collection at the Library

We are thrilled to announce the launch of our new Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) section on our website. This dedicated space is designed to ensure that every member of our community is represented. Please see the screenshot below for instructions on finding it on our website.
